2. The candidates who get the seat allotment must accept it through the portal.
3. If no seat is allotted, then the eligible candidates will be considered in the next counselling automatically.
4. If a candidate does not accept an allotted seat within the specified time period as mentioned in the schedule, his/her candidature will be forfeited from the entire admission process and will be omitted from the entire counselling process as well.

5. In order to download the provisional allotment letter, candidates must sign the acceptance letter generated at the time of accepting the allotment and upload it to the portal.
6. If a candidate wishes to exit from the counselling process he may do so by selecting the appropriate option, in that case, his/her candidature will be forfeited for the entire counselling process. However, the candidate must have to submit an undertaking.

Candidates having discrepant documents may also take admission provisionally, but the candidate will have to make the discrepancy correct within the specified time, visit the institution for verification of the discrepant documents and regularize his/her admission where the candidate gets the latest seat allotment.

14. If the data entered in the online portal do not match with the actual personal data (Caste/Category) of the candidate, then his/her candidature will be rejected for that round and after correction by the candidate side, he/she will be considered for the next rounds.
15. The detail of the fees to be submitted on the day of admission is Rs. 10,000 as token money from the candidates which will be adjusted later on at the time of final admission.
16. The hostel and mess expenses will be collected at the institute level after the allotment of the hostel to the candidates as per prescribed rates/guidelines.
